

Ocean View School District Preparatory Preschool

FAQs

Frequently Asked Questions

- Q: Fees – If I am a part time employee, will I have flexibility of every other Wednesday as per my work schedule?
A: The schedules are fixed and staffing is allocated accordingly.
- Q: Can I drop off my child early if I have meetings at no additional charge?
A: Children may be dropped off 15 minutes prior to start time.
- Q: Will there be weekly payments options?
A: Payment is made on a monthly basis and can be paid online through “My School Bucks” on the District website or by personal check or money order.
- Q: Is there a sibling discount?
A: A 10 percent discount for the second child based on the lower of the two fees.
- Q: Is there an employee discount?
A: Not at this time, however, employees can utilize their Section 125 pretax option.
- Q: If I am ill or on vacation do I still pay for the entire week?
A: Illness: You will be required to pay for that day.
A: Vacation: You will receive a prorated vacation credit for a maximum of two weeks per year.
- Q: Will we only pay for weeks attended – and not pay for time not attended – or is it the same price each month? (e.g., Thanksgiving break; Winter break; Spring break)
A: Each month will be the same cost. See vacation option above.
- Q: Do you have plans for a summer program?
A: Yes we do! We are in the process of developing a 2010 summer program.
- Q: Will there be an assessment of social/emotional, as well as academic progress?
A: There are no formal assessments; however, teachers will complete a developmental inventory of each child’s progress to be shared at teacher/parent conferences.
- Q: Will the Preschool MAT test?
A: No. The MAT is provided at entrance into our kindergarten program.
- Q: Am I locked into M/W/F if my schedule changes to T/TH?
A: Changes to your schedule can be made if there is available space.